Beans

92 mins | Canada | 2020

Director: Tracey Deer

Recommended Ages: 14+

Live Q&A: Saturday, March 13 - 5pm ET

Language: English

In the summer of 1990, Beans, a sweet and studious twelve-year-old Mohawk girl, is suddenly forced to grow up fast and become her own kind of warrior when a land occupation battle creates a fierce stand-off between her indigenous community and the government. Torn between innocent childhood and reckless adolescence, she struggles to build her own identity amidst the chaos of the uprising and the injustice of a world that sees her as different even in her own land. Will she succumb to the pressures of a society intent on bringing her down? Or will she rise up to assert her strength and character? Recommended ages 14+

⏪ Jackie & Oopjen

91 mins | Netherlands | 2020

Director: Annemarie van de Mond

Recommended Ages: 8+

Language: Dutch

Subtitle: English

Twelve-year-old Jackie has made Amsterdam's world famous Rijksmuseum her second home since her mother is always busy at her job there. As Jackie wanders the museum after hours, Oopjen Coppit, the woman depicted in Rembrandt's famous 1634 painting, suddenly steps out of the canvas and into the middle of the gallery. Used to keeping her cool and problem solving, Jackie instantly decides to take Oopjen under her wing and help her search for her missing sister. Oopjen, a woman from the Golden Age, finds the 21st century to be a big adventure while Jackie finally finds a true friend.

The Mitchells vs. the Machines

Sneak Peek of Footage & Q&A

66 mins | 2021

Director: Michael Rianda

Recommended Ages: (Film is rated PG)

Live Q&A: March 14 @ 5pm ET

Missed our special sneak peek and behind the scenes Q&A? Watch it here now! Please note this program is not the film.

Directed by Michael Rianda, THE MITCHELLS VS. THE MACHINES is an original animated comedy from Sony Pictures Animation and Netflix about an everyday family's struggle to relate while technology rises up around the world! When Katie Mitchell (voiced by Abbi Jacobson), a creative outsider, is accepted into the film school of her dreams, her plans to meet "her people" at college are upended when her nature-loving dad Rick (voiced by Danny McBride) determines the whole family should drive Katie to school together and bond as a family one last time.

My Dad is a Heel Wrestler

112 mins | Japan | 2018

Director: Kyohei Fujimura

Recommended Ages: 9+

Language: Japanese

Subtitle: English

9-year-old Shota's dad was a star, top-tier pro wrestler until age and injuries dropped him to the kitschy B-league of wrestling. Shota believes his dad is still number one, until one day he makes the shocking discovery that his father is not a hero wrestler but Cockroach, the "heel", or villain, everyone loves to hate. Can Shota's father take off his mask and learn that there are more important things than saving face? Can Shota learn that real heroes don't always don the guise we think? Find out in this heart-warming, body-slamming, smile-inducing tale that lights up the ring. Recommended ages 9+

Director: Germán Acuña

Recommended Ages: 8+

Live Q&A: Saturday, March 6 - 7pm ET

Language: Spanish

Subtitle: English

Life in Nahuel's seaside town revolves around the ocean, which makes his fear of water a challenge. What's worse, he can't help his fisherman father on his boat. One day, Nahuel finds a magical book, the Levisterio, that seems to offer a solution to this problem. But a dark sorcerer is after the book and captures Nahuel's father to set a trap. Guided by Fresia, a shaman's daughter, Nahuel journeys to rescue his father and find courage from within. Recommended ages 8+
